

CV

Gottfried Konecny

em. Prof. University of Hanover, Germany

Education

- Germany, Technical University Munich, Dipl. Ing. Surveying Engineering
- USA, Ohio State University, M.Sc. Photogrammetry (1955)
- Germany, Technical University Munich, Dr. Ing. (1959)

4 Honorary Doctorates

- Argentina 1971
- Canada 1985
- India 1995
- Russia 2004

Honorary Prof.

Wuhan Technical University of Surveying and Mapping (China) 1986

Honorary Prof.

Siberian State Academy of Geodesy and Geoinformatics 2007

Authored Books

- Photogrammetry 1984
- Geoinformation 2002, 2014

Member of 4 academies

Author or Co-Author of around 230 publications

Major Consultancies

- Kuwait Municipality 1980-1996
Integrated Data system for mapping and cadastre. Dubai Municipality 1988-2001, Surveying and Mapping.
- World Bank 1991-1999
Chairman, Advisory Committee for Environmental Information Systems for the in Subsaharan Africa.
- World Bank for Cadastral Land Registration Projects:
Bulgaria 2002-2004, Serbia 2004-2007, Macedonia 2005, Albania 2005-2006, Ukraine 2007-2009.
- Saudi Arabia 2004
Surveying and Photogrammetric Mapping
- Adjudicator Albania (LAMP Project) 2012-2013
- German delegation member to U.N. Cartographic Conferences since 1977 and to UNGGIM since 2012

Educational Experiences:

- Setup of first English speaking degree program in Surveying Engineering at the University of New Brunswick, Canada 1959-1971
- Technical Assistance in setting up degree programs in geoinformatics in Zimbabwe 1988-1992 and in India 1990-1998

Research Activities:

- 1966-1967
Mapping of Lunar Landing Site at NASA in Houston, Texas
- 1976-1984
Project Scientist for Metric Camera Experiment on Space Shuttle for European Space Agency and Project Team member for MOMS sensor on Space Shuttle and the MIR Space Station

Professional Activities:

- President, 1984-88
International Society for Photogrammetry and Remote Sensing
- Chairman, 1993-97
European Association of Remote Sensing Laboratories